

PALIDIN Platform Fraud Prevention System

A digital identity verification and fraud prevention service that enables organizations to authenticate government-issued identification documents and validate user identity across in-person and remote channels. The platform combines document authentication, optional biometric facial matching, and centralized transaction reporting to support secure onboarding, fraud detection, and regulatory compliance.

Contact details: Yasin Shuman - yshuman@uveritech.com

Website: <https://www.fraudfighter.com/>
